

What to do when you've been in an accident

- Do not attempt to resolve the incident. Call 911.
- Request that police document the accident.
If police can't respond, submit Alaska's self-report form to the DMV
kelleyandcanterbury.com/report
- Take pictures/video of involved vehicles, parties and the scene.
- If you are injured, enlist help with documenting the scene.
- Immediately report the incident to your own insurance carrier.
- Go to the doctor promptly for injuries.
- Save any documents related to incident.
- Consult with your attorney prior to signing ANY document.